Vogt to Take Over Sociology Position; Date Set for Feb. 1

Phillip H. Vogt, who will begin his duties as associate professor of sociology on Feb. 1.

Mr. Vogt, who is presently county welfare director, is "very enthusiastic" about his new position. He was closely associated with past sociology department head, Dr. George Wilbur in several jointly financed projects including a study on dependency and a church study.

"The Department of Public Welfare is a practical application of the theory taught by the sociology department," Mr. Vogt said.

Mr. Vogt, who received his MA from Washington University (St. Louis), taught in the College of Adult Education before the war. He feels that he will be "accentuating" his past association.

WESTMINSTERS TO RETREAT

The Westminster Fellowship Retreat will take place Friday and Saturday, Jan. 29-30 in Valley. Participants should meet at Dundee Presbyterian Church at 4 p. m., Jan. 29.

Completion Date Is Hazy; Expected to Be February

Word from the President's Office has it that completion of the Student Activities Building won't make the February 1 deadline.

No definite completion date has been set, but University observers expect the new building to be completed in February.

The first floor will contain a self-service bookstore, a snack-room, a game room for checkers and chess, an active lounge for ping-pong and pool and space for bowling alleys sometime in the future.

A 500-person capacity ballroom and a terrace will occupy the second level along with a complete kitchen, conference-dining area, faculty lounge and offices of the Alumni Association, student council and others.

A chapel, a sick bay, a check-room and a $1,000 meeting area financed by the Alumni Association will also share space on the second level.

Meeting rooms ranging from 60 seats to 150 seats, will occupy the third level. One room will be provided for informal coffee hours.

South Omaha Center for Adults Also Desired

Increased use of educational television and an adult education center in South Omaha were two prospects for the future brought out by Dr. Donald Emery, dean of the College of Adult Education, in an interview this week.

Completion of the radio-television studio in the Applied Arts Building will mean a new experience potential for day college students, he said.

"It would mean connecting classrooms with our studio and the commercial stations and, later, even into a Midwest educational television network," Dr. Emery said.

"I am confident that within the next few years such a system will be a reality on this campus," he continued.

The South Omaha Adult Education center idea came out after a previous Gateway story concerning hope for a "CAE Building," which was erroneously interpreted by some persons to mean preference for CAE facilities at the expense of other plans.

The story from the Friday, Dec. 11, 1959, issue of the Gateway stated that the Fine Arts Building was next on OU's building schedule and that the building fund would be used for the Fine Arts Building alone.

Because of the large segment of South Omaha night students and the proximity of Bellevue and SAC headquarters and Offutt Air Force Base, "serious consideration" should also be given to securing space in an old, renovated grade school building or evening class space at South High School, Dr. Emery explained.

"Such an operation would have to be self-supporting," he added.

But new buildings, facilities and additional personnel will cost money, and it will be up to the University to find some source of assistance, the dean pointed out.

OU Music Instructors Feature Recital Guest

Three OU music instructors and a guest artist will present a recital Jan. 24, 4:30 p. m. in the Joslyn Lecture Hall.

Dr. James Peterson and guest James B. Price will play violin; Helena Bell, cello, and Victor Wolfram, piano.

They will present a violin-cello duet, a piano trio, and a string trio, all by Beethoven.

The recital, free of charge, is open to the public.

Senior Pictures Set

Seniors in the College of Arts and Sciences and the College of Applied Arts are scheduled to have pictures taken for the Tomahawk today and Saturday at Photoreflex Studio (3rd floor, Kilpatrick's).

Seniors who did not have pictures taken on schedule have the rest of January to do so.

Second semester Bootstrappers and new transfers may take pictures Feb. 1-6.

No appointment is necessary.

Student Teachers Note

All students planning to student teach in secondary schools second semester will meet Monday, Jan. 18, at 3:30 p. m. in Room 208.

NOTICE

Tryouts for the marching Indians will be held Tuesday, Feb. 2 at 3:30 p. m. in the Music Building.

Landis Builds Long Capacity, Takes High Road, Plays Pipe

By Linda Strnad

"You take the high road, and I'll take the low road and . . ."

The sharp, variable tones of a bagpipe entered a music class recently, but they weren't provided by a Scottish Highlander. Student Bill Landis, native of Niagara Falls, N. Y., did the entertaining.

Mr. Landis, better known as stage manager in OU's "Our Town," didn't have to go to Scotland to get his training, either.

Yankee Bagpipe

"When I was playing with the American Legion Band in '48, a friend of mine told me he was learning to be a 'piper' with a bagpipe band on the Canadian side of the falls," he explained. "The next thing I knew I had traded in my brass instrument for a bagpipe."

His bagpipe got closer to its homeland two years later when Landis was stationed in England with the Air Force. "In England for three years I was labeled as the Yankee with the bagpipe," he said.

He appeared on the Independent TV Station and British Broadcasting Co., and was invited to play at numerous dances, garden parties and societies. "Often I played with piper groups and wore tartan kilts, too."

Jazzed Pipe

"Once I startled some people when I played 'When the Saints Go Marching In' and 'Banana Boat Song'—on my bagpipe," he said with a chuckle. "Jazz music on the pipes was something new for them."

While overseas he went to Scotland and played his bagpipe at the famous castle of MacCrae. "I boasted of my Scottish ancestry while I was there," he said. "But actually they knew I had only a small amount of Scottish blood, and therefore referred to me as 'the only German in the pipe team.'"

Mr. Landis explained that one doesn't begin on the bagpipe immediately. First the student must practice on an instrument similar to a tonette—a practice chanter.

Building Up Lungs

"One has to exert much pressure in the chanter, so it's good practice for building lung capacity for the bagpipe," he pointed out. "I began on the chanter in January, learned the required five pieces from memory, and was playing with the pipe band by summer."

Mr. Landis said that an hour a day practice session for seven years is necessary to become a good 'piper.' "The scale runs only from lower G, up an octave to A, and therefore requires complex finger movement."

Pipe music is similar throughout the world. "Highland Laddie" and "Road to the Isles" are two of the basic tunes. Types of music played on the pipes are quick and slow marches, strathspeys, reels, waltzes and laments.

Mr. Landis, a Political Science major and bootstrapper, hasn't played too much recently. "barely have time enough to play to keep the bag from drying out," he said.

"However, in the future, I plan to perfect my bagpipe boogie and make some recordings."

George Morgan, Geography Major, Wins NU Internship

One of the first graduates from OU's newly formed geography department is the winner of an internship at the University of Nebraska.

George Morgan will begin his internship in the NU geography department Feb. 1.

"I was only expecting a tuition scholarship. Internships at this time of year are pretty rare," Morgan said.

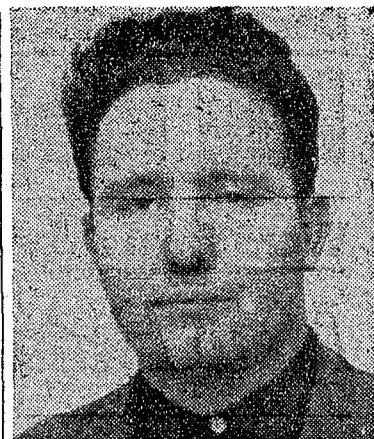

Morgan a geography major, will graduate at the end of this semester, completing his academic requirements in 3 years.

"I have always been interested in the relationship between man and his environment. It gives a total picture of what man is doing, a more rounded outlook."

Further study into the biogeography of Africa will be on the agenda for Morgan . . . in his moments outside teaching at Nebraska. Interest in Africa and its relationship of biology and geography was stimulated by a research paper for which each member of the geography class chose a country and its related geography.

"Africa, my favorite continent, is unique in that not much has been done there. Besides a knowledge of this undeveloped country would be an asset in economic aid," he said.

Morgan plans to work for his masters and doctors degrees.

Combination of Talent, Personality, Beauty, Required of 'Miss Omaha' Contestants

The month of April will mark the selection of Miss Omaha of 1960-61.

Sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Miss Omaha contest is a preliminary leading to the Miss America competition.

According to the Jaycees, the Miss Omaha contest was originally based on beauty alone, but in the years that followed, there were many beauty contests, conducted for every conceivable purpose, until the Miss Omaha and Miss America contests were degraded by exploitation of publicity agents who searched for legitimate ideas that they might 'steal' and use to their own monetary advantage.

This is the reason for the current rules.

"Miss Omaha," as stated by the Jaycees, "must be a combination of talent, personality and beauty. Each shall be judged separately for points, and the winner shall have gained the greatest points total. In this manner a contestant must possess at least average ability in all three fields."

An entrant in the Miss Omaha contest must be between 18 and 28 years of age as of September 1, 1960 and must have been a resident for at least six months prior to the contest of Omaha, or Douglas, Sarpy, or nearby counties or Council Bluffs.

The entrant may be a college or university student whose home is in one of these localities, but is away at school, or one whose residence is elsewhere, but is a student in one of these localities.

The currently reigning Miss

Omaha is Wahnette Bush, a junior at the University.

Some of the activities in which she has participated since receiving the title include television appearances—to promote the TB Bangle Day collection, the Christmas Home Lighting Awards show and 'Conversations,' attending special dinners; participating in the Jaycees who recruited the most new members.

The main event in which Miss Omaha participates is the Miss Nebraska contest in Lincoln, which is a step toward competition in Atlantic City.

Preliminary judging for this year's contest will begin April 2 and will end in the final pageant at the Community Playhouse, April 24. Applications for entrants are due by March 1.

First Track Team Competition Feb. 3

The Omaha U indoor track team will face its first competition of the '60 season Febr. 3. The OU cinder men will run against Kansas City University and Emporia State College.

Head Track Coach Ernie Gorr began some preliminary testing of his track men for positions on the squad last week.

Gorr's step by step improving program has shown up in the improvement some of the boys have made so far. Other tests will be given to determine the standings of others this week.

The indoor track team is made up of all new talent this year, except for returning lettermen Bob Camer, and Larry Duff.

Several Making Improvement

Coach Gorr noted several new runners that were making good improvement. Among these were: Leo McCarthy, sprints; Al Elerbrook, quarter mile; J. B. Simmons and Dave Gibson, hurdles and high jump; Gibson was also working on the quarter mile. Dennis Dunning, quarter mile. Dennis Taylor is continuing his cross-country work.

Coach Gorr said, "We are working under a handicap due to the fact that the fieldhouse is being used by the basketball and wrestling teams as well as us at the same time, but as yet it hasn't seemed to hurt us."

Some very favorable times were turned in by some of Gorr's boys last Friday on their first tests. Freshman Dennis Dunning blistered out two laps in the fieldhouse that were faster than any run before here at Omaha University.

Gorr NAIA Chairman

Coach Gorr said, "Kansas has some strength in sprinting and jumping, South Dakota has a few good boys in weights and distance, and Emporia has some good distance men and a couple of sprinters."

Gorr has been asked to serve as Chairman of the Cross Country section of the NAIA Coaches As-

Matmen Pin Three; Clobber Ft. Hays

Omaha U matmen set an example which the cagers didn't seem able to follow by beating Ft. Hays 24 to 6 last Friday.

OU made three pins. The fastest was OU's Art Ferguson who pinned Jay Sekavec in 3:40. This is Ferguson's first year, according to Coach Russ Goremah and he looks like he's off to a good start. The other five pointers are George Crenshaw who pinned Dean Raedel in 7:45 and Melvin Masek who pinned Preston McLeod in 8:13.

Said Coach Gorman, "Don't judge Ft. Hays by the score, they have a tough team. Our boys were in good condition and didn't make many mistakes. I was very pleased."

Results of Ft. Hays match:

123—Dale Votapka, Hays, decided Bill Servais, 5-1.

130—Charles Whitner, OU, decided Gerald Paxton, 12-8.

137—Louie Miloni, OU, decided Bill Pickenpau, 5-0.

147—Jim Goward, OU, decided Jim Mosher, 3-0.

157—George Crenshaw, OU, pinned Dean Raedel in 7:45.

167—Bill Erickson, Hays decided John Emery, 3-0.

177—Melvin Masek, OU, pinned Preston McLeod in 8:13.

Heavy—Art Ferguson, OU, pinned Jay Sekavec in 3:40.

OU Conference Champs

The OU matmen tied with Colorado School of Mines 12 to 12 on December 19. Said assistant coach Don Benning, "Colorado beat Nebraska U. 27 to 2. By beating them and Ft. Hays, we are considered the CIC conference champions."

sociation. He will also be working with the track committee. As Chairman it will be his job to get all cross-country track coaches whose schools belong to the NAIA organized for the national NAIA convention in March in Kansas City, Mo.

SPORTS

CU Downs OU Indians Lose 74-52

An inspired Omaha University basketball team gave a Fieldhouse crowd plenty of action and thrills Tuesday against a taller Creighton University team.

The Creighton Bluejays downed OU, 74-52, with their superior height and control basketball tactics. The smaller Indians proved that although if all shots don't hit, enough of them will make the birds flutter.

Harvey, Hartman, Hubbard

The Indians pressed the CU cagers from the start and only because of Creighton's taller players were the Bluejays able to beat the OU cagers. Creighton's Dick Harvey and Dick Hartman continually hit soft hook-shots and in the process totaled 21 points apiece. Another CU cager took advantage of height and skill. Ed Hubbard had no trouble handling his ever successful long jump-shots.

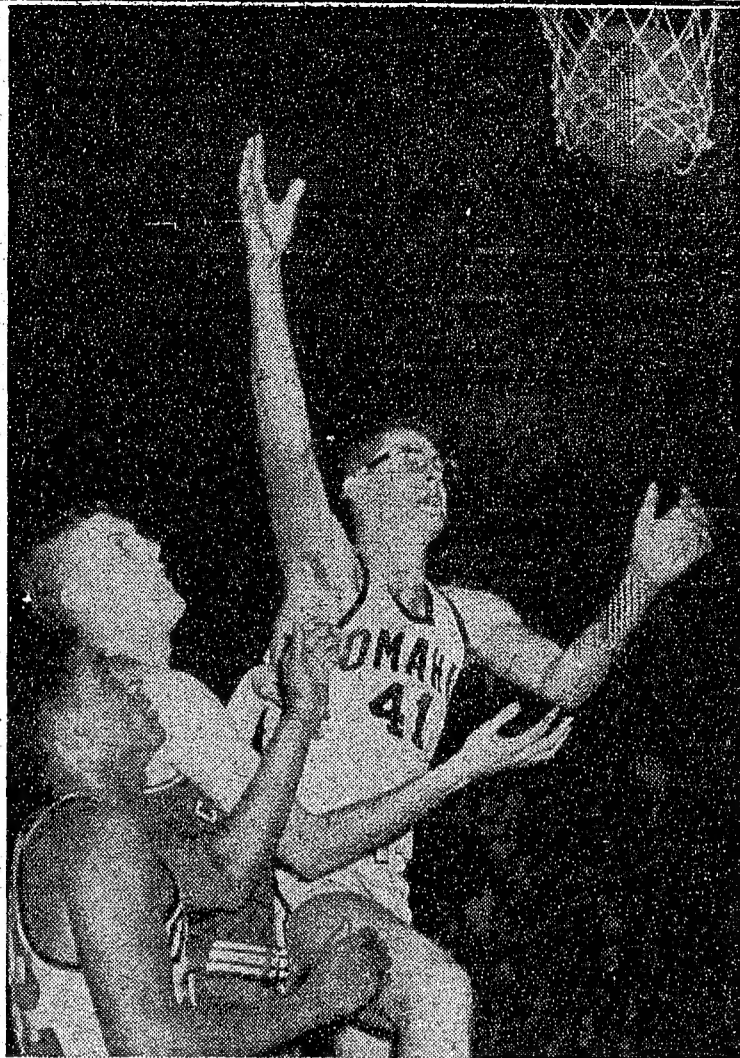

Another advantage due to the enormous size was the CU ball control. When the Creighton team could not hit the basket it would pass the ball from one CU player to another, over the heads of opposing Indians.

No Sloppy Ball By Tribe

OU didn't play sloppy ball either. Phil Gradoville, Bruce Hunter, Jim Markey, Joe Neuberger, Gary Wentworth and Dick Hegarty played like men possessed with an indestructible power. The "Tribe" constantly harassed the CU team, stealing passes, rebounds, and the show with remarkable basketball skill.

Evans Gets 22

OU's Jerry Evans surprised his opponent six-foot eight-inch Hartman. Evans a meager six-foot five held his opponent to 21 and scored 22 for the OU team and top honors of the game. Evans looked down on many of the taller CU basketballers when he went up after the rebounds on both offense and defense.

Evans drops another two-point shot as the fast and furious Omaha U-Creighton game nears the final stages of Tuesday's contest.

And although the OU team played in a whirl and whiz of super basketball class, they couldn't reach the Creighton superiority on the hardwood.

The OU cagers will play Rockhurst tomorrow evening at 7:45 in the OU Fieldhouse.

These are the silver wings of a U. S. Air Force Navigator. As a flying officer on the Aerospace team, he has chosen a career of leadership, a career that has meaning, rewards and executive opportunity.

The Aviation Cadet Program is the gateway to this career. To qualify for this rigorous and professional training, a high school diploma is required; however, two or more years of college are highly desirable. Upon completion of the program the Air Force encourages the new officer to earn his degree so he can better handle the responsibilities of his position. This includes full pay and allowances while taking off-duty courses under the Bootstrap education program. The Air Force will pay a substantial part of all tuition costs. After having attained enough credits so that he can complete course work and residence requirements for a college degree in 6 months or less, he is eligible to apply for temporary duty at the school of his choice.

'60 CHEVY! ONLY WAY YOU CAN BUY A CAR FOR LESS IS TO BUY A LOT LESS CAR!

THRIFTIEST 6 IN ANY FULL-SIZE CAR—Chevy's Hi-Thrift 6 is the '60 version of the engine that got 22.38 miles per gallon in the latest Mobilgas Economy Run—more than any other full-size car.

NEW ECONOMY TURBO-FIRE V8—Here's a V8 with the "git" Chevy's famous for—plus a new economy-contoured camshaft and other refinements that get up to 10% more miles on a gallon of regular.

EASIER-TO-LOAD LUGGAGE COMPARTMENT—The trunk sill is lower and the lid opening is more than a foot and a half wider than Chevy's nearest competitor's. There's over 20% more usable space!*

MORE ROOM WHERE YOU WANT MORE ROOM—Chevy's trimmed down transmission tunnel (25% smaller) gives you more foot room. You also get more head and hip room than in any other 2- or 4-door sedans in the field.

WIDEST CHOICE OF POWER TEAMS—A choice of 24 engine-transmission teams in all—to satisfy the most finicky driving foot. There are seven engines with output all the way up to 335 h.p. and five silk-smooth transmissions.

EXTRA CONVENIENCES OF BODY BY FISHER—No other car in Chevy's field gives you crank-operated ventipanes, Safety Plate Glass all around and dozens of other Fisher Body refinements.

CHEVY SETS THE PACE WITH LOWER PRICES—All Bel Air and Impala V8's are lower priced, as are many options. Example: a Bel Air V8 sedan with Turboglide, de luxe heater and push-button radio lists at $65.30 less for '60.

QUICKER STOPPING BRAKES—Long-lived bonded-lining brakes with larger front-wheel cylinders for '60 give you quicker, surer stops with less pedal pressure.

SOFTER, MORE SILENT RIDE—Chevy's the only leading low-priced car that gentles the bumps with coil springs at all four wheels. Noise and vibration are filtered to the vanishing point by new body mounts.

NOT CHANGE FOR CHANGE'S SAKE, BUT FOR YOURS—There's only one person we consider when we make a change—and that's you. That's why we don't think you'll find anything more to your liking at anything like the price.

CHEVROLET

The more you look around the more you'll find to convince you that no other low-priced car has so much to show for your money as this new Chevrolet. Here's the kind of styling sophistication and subtle detail that only Fisher Body craftsmanship can create. Here's the kind of Full Coil comfort that neither of the other two leading low-priced cars—and only some of the smoothest riding higher priced ones—build into their suspension systems. Here's more room inside (where you want it) without an inch more outside (where you don't want it). And with all these advances Chevy has managed to hold the price line! Your dealer will be delighted to fill you in on all the facts.
